Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, in Friendship Methodist Church, by the Reverend J. R. Callicott officiating. Burial will be in Delight Cemetery by Oakcrest Funeral Home.

Sinatra Could Give Apology

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Mexico City newspaper Excelsior reports that Frank Sinatra, who was banned from Mexico because his film "Marriage On the Rocks" made fun of Mexican divorcees, may be allowed back in if he apologizes.

Excelsior said Thursday that Sinatra is said to be seeking re-entry and that lawyer Louis Nizer, who visited the Acapulco Film Festival, is handling the negotiations.

DYSMENORRHEA By Dr. CHARLES JOHNSON

A 38 year old housewife, "I am sick over half my time, spending an average of one week in bed each month. My trouble starts with severe cramps, nausea, headaches, and back pains. I was told after marriage and childbirth that I would get better, but I'm not any better. Can anything be done for cases of my type?" Scientific nerve test indicated disturbance in the nerve flow leading to the organs of generation. Corrective spinal adjustments have corrected this disturbance. Patient has regained normal health and function.

TURKEY TALK

ELK RIVER, Minn. (AP) — When the Pilgrims trotted out the turkeys for that first festive Thanksgiving, they proved again that an iron will and a jaw-bone similarly endowed could prevail in the face of adversity.

For, according to a poultry specialist, the Pilgrims land of plenty would be too much for modern man — if he had to sink his teeth into one of those wild birds.

"You would probably have to roast a wild turkey 10 hours to eat it," said Dr. Norman Macruder of the Carcass-Nutrient animal research farm here. "The meat was stringy, tough and dry, and the skin leathery. They ate whole grains, and would be greasy from picking up a lot of resins and oils that domestic birds don't.

Furthermore, that wild species probably weighed in at about 10 pounds on the hoof which didn't leave much for the table."

The rotating telephone dial was first patented in 1896.

Original Minstrels

Negro slaves originated the minstrel show, the only native American theatrical form, in the sense that the first minstrel shows, beginning in the early 19th century with Negro impersonators, were based on the singing and dancing of slaves.

MONEY TO BURN at the Federal Reserve. Every week thousands and thousands of dollars wind up in ashes as the Reserve banks fulfill one of their duties—destroying worn-out bills. Above, $100 packets, "canceled" first with large holes, are fed into a special furnace at the Ninth Federal Reserve Bank in Minneapolis. Right, the bills go up in expensive smoke. A bank official stands by at all times to make certain every bill burns completely. Just in case he misses, the furnace is fitted with 16 combination locks to prevent anyone later raking over the ashes. The old money isn't a total loss—paper currency burns at high temperature, helping to heat the building.

New Worry for Auto Industry

DETROIT (AP) — The auto industry, already beset with a sales lag and production cutbacks, has another worry today — the possible effects of a safety-recall campaign involving more than a half million cars checked out in recent weeks, but additional thousands of owners were sent notification by registered mail that a potential trouble item had been uncovered in their cars.

Industry sales in October and early November ran about five per cent below a year ago.

The sales lag has caused all four major automobile firms to slice production.

Farmers Back Rice Program

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation gave the present rice program a strong endorsement Tuesday as the organization ended its annual meeting with the election of officers.

The bureau adopted a resolution to "support efforts to expand rice usage and reduce government costs, and when the situation permits an acreage increase be granted."

The rice resolution further stated that the bureau "strongly opposes any program that would place allotments on bushels or a certificate system with direct subsidy to producers."

The bureau also went on record as opposing any acreage control of marketing quotas on soybeans. The resolution said the soybean program was an outstanding example of how price supports can serve the interests of farmers and avoid interference with the normal workings of the market.

Also adopted was a resolution asking that cotton farmers be allowed the same privilege of nonfarmers to clear land and plant soybeans without affecting soil conserving bases.

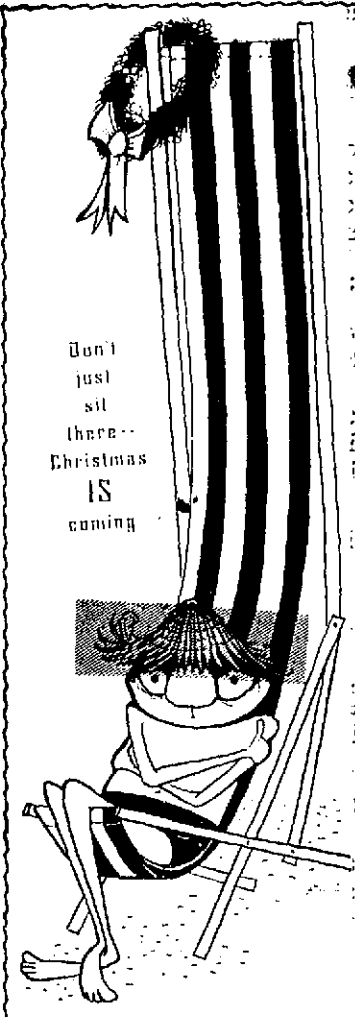

The group also resolved to work actively to preserve section 14b of the Taft-Hartley Act which allows Arkansas to pass right-to-work legislation.

Thanksgiving for Kennedys

A spokesman said they will stay in Newport for three days before returning to New York.

Today is John's sixth birthday. The family spokesman said there would be a birthday party "if there is any food left." Caroline will be nine next Sunday.

Matinee at Sunset at Hope Drive-in

Velda Seamans, manager of the Dixie Drive in Theater in Hope, announced this week that due to many requests, the drive in each Sunday evening will have what will be called a "Sunset Matinee". Many folks like to attend the drive in movies on Sunday and have a sandwich snack at the drive in theatre during the show—but also wish to get home early in order to be ready for Monday.

The Sunset matinee at the Dixie Drive in will begin at 5:15 each Sunday night. Box office will open at 4:45 P.M. On the double feature programs, one feature will be run twice during the evening, the other one once. In this way it will be possible for everyone coming to the show between 5 P.M. and 6:45 P.M. to always see a complete double feature program—and as late at 7:30 and see one feature on Sunday night. Children are admitted free to the drive in accompanied by adults, and the drive in is the place to hold a Sunday evening picnic and show.

There are many outstanding shows coming to the Dixie during December. Friday and Saturday nights regular opening time of 6:30 and show starting at 7 P.M. will prevail.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

THE KEY CHAIN KIDS

Dear Helen: This is a switch I stay home and care for my family because I like it that way. Am always home when our children arrive from school. Felt kind of virtuous about it—not being a Working Mother who lets her kids come into an empty house.

Well! Our eight year-old Mellic informed me the other day that she had to have a house key on a chain like the other kids do, this after I discovered a necklace with an old key on it in her jewelry box and asked her what it was all about. Seems she'd been wearing this to school every day so she wouldn't feel "inferior" to her friends. A door key in the primary grade set has become a status symbol, no less!

Incidentally, the old key opened nothing around our place—Mellic found it in the street. But the kids didn't know that. She's now a "key-chain-kid."

Should I let her keep on wearing it, explain to her the other kids are the ones who are "deprived," or just have it come up "missing"?—MRS. W.O.

Dear Mrs. W.: There's no harm in letting Mellic wear an old key until she tires of it (which shouldn't take over a month.)

Don't, repeat DON'T, tell her the other kids are "deprived." How do YOU know? Their parents may manage just as well as hers do.

Working mothers have it tough enough without youngsters getting into the controversy!

Dear Helen: You're probably tired of the spanking question. (Note from H: That I am, I must either spare the rod or spoil my column.) But I have a problem with our 12-year-old daughter. She has never been spanked, and begs me to spank her. She thinks this makes children respect their parents more. I've told her discipline can be maintained other ways, and have read some good books about it with her. But she still insists.

She has talked to friends, relatives and neighbors about it, and the problem becomes embarrassing. She figures if I really love her I'd get upset enough to spank her when she needs it. She's driving me crazy.

What's a mother to do?

MRS. M.

Dear Mrs. M.: Tell her if you hear one more nagging word about this silly business you'll "turn her over your knee and spank her." And show a little fire in your eye! Wanta bet that will be the end of THAT?

Your daughter doesn't want switches—she wants limits. Perhaps, in your urge to be an unpushy, giving and forgiving mother, you've fallen short on generalship; and she takes this to mean you don't care what happens to her. So switch to the "Do this or else!" school—and she'll hopefully stop short before "else"—most of the time.—H.

Dear Helen: You dismissed the letter from the teenager who was spanked in front of her boyfriend as a hoax, but expressed shock if it really happened.

If any of my girls (age 6 to 16) were rude to me or disobeyed in front of others, they would get paddled then and there. A public spanking is humiliating enough to keep teenage rebellious under control. At that age, when youngsters are too big for their britches, a smart whack on the britches can be very effective.

If parents and even teachers spanked kids a little more, we would have a lot less delinquents and spoiled brats.—OLD FASHIONED MOM

Dear Mom: Sorry to disagree but I think it's respect, not fear of parents, that makes a good teen. And what teen could possibly respect a mother who gave her a spanking in front of a boy? Moreover, if a switch is your panacea, why is it that at age 16 your daughter still needs one? Surely she has been "trained" by this time!—H.

Porkers Are Invited to Liberty Bowl

MEMPHIS (AP) — The University of Arkansas has been invited to play Miami of Florida in the Liberty Bowl football game here Dec. 10 if Southern Methodist beats Texas Christian Saturday.

But the Oklahoma Sooners are waiting in the wings in the case the crippled Razorbacks decide to turn down the bowl in games Thursday, with wondloss records in parenthesis. An SMU victory over TCU Saturday would send the Mustangs into the Cotton Bowl 2, Little Rock Catholic 33-0, beat Georgia. An SMU loss would mean that Arkansas 3, Fort Smith Northside (9-2) would represent the Southwest Conference in the classic.

Should Arkansas turn down the invitation, Oklahoma looms as the likely opponent for the Razorbacks were too crippled to be ready to play by Dec. 10. He declined further comment Thursday.

Frank Broyles, head coach at Arkansas, said Wednesday his Razorbacks were too crippled to be ready to play by Dec. 10. He declined further comment Thursday.

Dr. David Mullins, president of the University of Arkansas, said he knew the invitation had "not been accepted, but I don't believe a decision will be made until Saturday."

A. F. (Bud) Dudley, Liberty Bowl president, still is hopeful that Broyles will be persuaded by Arkansas fans to change his mind.

Meanwhile, coach Jim Mackenzie of Oklahoma, savoring the Sooners' 10-9 upset of Sugar-Bowl bound Nebraska, said of the Liberty Bowl:

"We'd be tickled to hear from them. But I'm sure they would like to have Arkansas."

"We're in a strange position," Dudley said. "Before, we had a team to kick off but nobody to receive. Now, we've got four bright possibilities—Oklahoma, Virginia Tech, SMU and Arkansas."

"We can analyze instead of panic now."

Meredith Calls Right for Cowboys

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Don Meredith is calling his shots again and the Dallas Cowboys are drawing a bead on their first division title in the National Football League.

Meredith, intercepted four times in an early-season loss to Cleveland, picked the Browns' defense apart Thursday, driving the Cowboys to a 26-14 victory that sent them into first place in the NFL's Eastern Division stretch race.

The victory moved Dallas one-half game ahead of the idle St. Louis Cardinals, who take on improved Pittsburgh Sunday without No. 1 quarterback Charley Johnson, who's out for the year with a damaged knee.

Meredith completed 16 of 24 passes for 131 yards and one touchdown, directed another touchdown drive and set up two of Danny Villanueva's four field goals with his passing and running. "I thought Meredith called a great game," said Cowboys Coach Tom Landry. "He mixed his plays very well and kept a balanced game going."

The Dallas signal-caller is confident they'll nail their first division crown since coming into the NFL six years ago. "We expect to win it," he said. "We have three games to go and we'll have to win them all."

The Cowboys, 8-2-1, entertain St. Louis and Washington at home before winding up their schedule at New York Dec. 18.

In the NFL's other Thanksgiving Day tussle, John Brodie led the San Francisco 49ers to a 41-14 triumph over the Detroit Lions.

Sunday, in addition to the Steelers-Cardinals scrap at St. Louis, the Green Bay Packers are at Minnesota, the Los Angeles Rams at Baltimore, the Atlanta Falcons at Chicago and the Giants at Washington.

Dallas, beaten seven straight times by the Browns and 11 times in 12 previous meetings, overcame a 14-13 halftime deficit Thursday to hand the defending Eastern champions their fourth setback in 11 starts. Villanueva booted 12 and 13-yard field goals in the third

Texas Wins Over A&M, to Bluebonnet

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Texas and Mississippi will be meeting for the third time in a post season football game when they play one another in the Dec. 17 Bluebonnet Bowl here.

Texas accepted an invitation Thursday after defeating Texas A&M 22-14 in their annual Thanksgiving day game. Mississippi accepted last Monday.

Bluebonnet Bowl President W. C. Moore predicted this year's game "will be the best game we've ever had."

The two teams have broken even in two previous meetings in bowl play. Mississippi defeated the Longhorns 39-7 in the 1958 Sugar Bowl and Texas defeated the Rebels 12-7 in the 1962 Cotton Bowl.

It also will be the second trip for each team to the Bluebonnet Bowl, which is played in Rice University's 70,000-seat stadium. Texas and Alabama battled to a 3-3 tie in 1960 and Mississippi was upset 14-7 by Tulsa in the 1964 game.

Mississippi has a 7-2 record and still has Mississippi State left on the schedule Saturday. The Rebels have shut out four opponents and have lost only to Alabama and Georgia, both bowl-bound teams.

Texas has lost to Southern California, Oklahoma, SMU and Arkansas.

Mississippi Coach Johnny Vaught called the Bluebonnet "a very attractive bowl to us."

"Our boys chose this bowl and we had some other opportunities," he said. "This is the one they wanted to play in."

Royal was concerned about quarterback Bill Bradley, who suffered a partially dislocated left shoulder. However, it was not believed serious enough to cause Bradley to miss bowl practice.

Lou Hassell, chairman of the Bluebonnet Bowl selection committee, invited the Longhorns after the game and they accepted with a loud cheer.

Womble Davison, Mississippi freshman football coach, scouted the Longhorns and called them "a very explosive team."

Texas finished with an identical 6-4 record last year and refused to talk to bowl representatives. However, the Longhorns lost four of their last five games last year and this year they won four of their last five contests.

Arkansas S. Ranked 6th Nationally

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Tennessee State made a final bid Thursday for top ranking in The Associated Press' small-college football poll, but it will have to wait until Saturday to see if it paid off.

The Tigers, ranked No. 2 in this week's poll of sports writers and sports casters, completed an unbeaten 9-0 season by mauling Kentucky State 83-0.

Now it is San Diego State's turn. The Aztecs, 9-0, easily retained the No. 1 spot, but must get by Los Angeles State Saturday.

San Diego polled 11 first-place votes and 137 points after beating Northern Arizona 16-8 last Saturday. Tennessee State had two top votes and 97 points in the poll taken before its Thanksgiving Day romp and after it whipped Allen 39-6 last week.

Morehead State received the only other first place vote, but finished down the list in the voting on the basis of 10 points for first place, nine for second, etc.

The Nos. 3 and 4 teams, Montana State, 8-2, with 83 points, and Northwestern Louisiana State 9-0, with 64, retained their positions.

Arkansas State, 7-2, moved into the Top Ten at the sixth spot by beating Trinity, Tex., 20-7 for a 7-2 mark. Parsons, 9-1, 21-10 winner over Hawaii, took over fifth from Weber State, 6-3, which lost 42-12 to Idaho, a major school. Weber State was 10th.

Muskingum, 9-0, moved up a notch to No. 7, as North Dakota, 7-2, fell to eighth, and North Dakota State, 8-2, remained ninth.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, and total points:

1. San Diego St. (11) 137
2. Tennessee St. (2) 97
3. Montana St. 83
4. Northwestern Louisiana St. 64

Buffalo Bills Move Closer to AFL Title

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Oakland's Raiders tell you it's tough to run against the Buffalo Bills who've moved closer to top honors a third straight year in the American Football League.

In a game billed as a must for both Buffalo and Oakland on Thanksgiving Day, it was the Bills by a 31-10 count after their defense provided the turning point in their fifth straight victory.

Deadlocked 7-7, quarterback Tom Flores hit end Art Powell with a 35-yard pass reaching the Buffalo 1. Oakland's Mike Eischeid kicked a field goal but the Bills evened the count and went ahead by halftime.

Victory for Buffalo virtually assured Kansas City the title in the West since the Chiefs stand 8-2-1 while the second place Raiders dropped to 7-5.

Buffalo went to 8-3-1 and a solid lead over Boston which stands 5-3-2 and New York at 5-4-1.

In games Sunday, San Diego plays at Denver, Kansas City at New York and Boston at Miami. Buffalo meets Boston on Dec. 4 on the Patriots home field in what could be the Eastern decider.

The Raiders netted only 58 yards rushing against the big Buffalo forward wall while fullback Wray Carlton alone ran for 97 against the Raiders. He scored two touchdowns, on runs of 11 and 2 yards.

The New York Jets face a must win situation against the Kansas City Chiefs in their Sunday set at Shea Stadium. A defeat would be the fifth for the Jets and virtually knock them out of contention in the Eastern Division.

Boston is favored to stay in second place back of Buffalo by beating the Dolphins at Miami. San Diego similarly is favored to beat Denver in the other Sunday game. Houston is idle this week.

Earlier in the 59-yard rive, McArthur threw a 33-yard pass to fullback Frank McGehee.

Central scored in the first half on sophomore Wayne Gills' 25-yard field goal.

Elsewhere in the Southwest, Southern Methodist is favored to retain the SWC title in a usually wide-open league, but Utah is not expected to repeat as champion of the Western Athletic Conference.

Brigham Young, winner of the NIT tourney in New York last March, is the early favorite to replace Utah at the top. The Utes lost three regulars, including Jerry Chambers, from the club which finished fourth nationally in the NCAA championship tourney.

Houston in the Southwest, Colorado State University in the Rocky Mountains and Seattle, on the Pacific Coast, top the Independents in their area.

QUICK QUIZ
Q—How long did it take Capt. John Ridgeway and Sgt. John Blyth to row across the Atlantic?
A—It took 92 days for the Boston to Ireland trip, which was made in the summer of 1966.

Q—What three flowers lead in commercial production?
A—The rose takes first place, carnation second and violet third.

Wildcats of NLR Rated State's Best

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The North Little Rock Wildcats clinched their second mythical state high school football championship in a row Thursday with a convincing 33-0 victory over Little Rock Catholic.

The Wildcats, who went into the game ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters, finished the season with an 11-1 record. North Little Rock went 10-0-2 last season in winning the state title.

Little Rock Hall made a bid for the No. 1 ranking with a 7-3 victory over Little Rock Central in a rugged defensive show in their annual Thanksgiving Day grudge match. The Warriors closed with a 9-1 record.

In other games Thursday Clarendon edged Holly Grove, 10-7; Newport beat Batesville, 7-0; Walnut Ridge downed Pocahontas, 20-7, and Little Rock Horace Mann whipped North Little Rock Jones, 20-7.

Quarterback Darrell Hatchett threw for one touchdown and scored two others in the North Little Rock victory. He passed eight yards to Ronnie Jones for a score, dashed 20 yards for another and took a pass from split end Randy Crowell on a trick play and sprinted 73 yards for a third touchdown.

The other Wildcat touchdowns came on junior tailback Danny Duke's one-yard plunge and halfback Dan Blackwood's 15-yard interception return.

Steve Hockersmith scored the lone Hall touchdown in the third quarter on two attempts over tackle from the five after the Warriors received new life moments earlier. That happened when quarterback Buzz McArthur's fourth and sixth pass fell incomplete, but an interference call gave Hall a first down at the five.

Earlier in the 59-yard rive, McArthur threw a 33-yard pass to fullback Frank McGehee.

Central scored in the first half on sophomore Wayne Gills' 25-yard field goal.

Elsewhere in the Southwest, Southern Methodist is favored to retain the SWC title in a usually wide-open league, but Utah is not expected to repeat as champion of the Western Athletic Conference.

UCLA Being Boomed in Basketball

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK (AP) — This is the season UCLA basketball followers have been waiting for.

Lew Alcindor, 7-foot-1 heralded sophomore, makes his varsity debut and is expected to lead the Bruins to the national collegiate championship.

Saturday, Dec. 3, is the date Alcindor plays his first varsity game for the Bruins after a fabulous freshman season. That night Southern California plays at UCLA. Followers of the Bruins confidently expect a victory that will start Coach Johnny Wooden's team on the road to its third national title in four years.

The Bruins fell from power last season when they lost their Pacific 8 crown to Oregon State while unsung Texas Western of El Paso won the national championship by upsetting Kentucky in the final of the NCAA post-season tourney last March in College Park, Md.

Oddly, Texas Western is not expected in some quarters to have another good season despite the return of most of their 1966 starters, including Bobby Joe Hill, Willie Worsley, Willie Cager and Nevil Shed.

"We're terrible," moaned Don Haskins, coach of the Miners, who open Dec. 1 against Sam Houston State.

"I think we have some swell-headed players," Haskins added. Once the season starts, however, things may be different for the Miners.

Elsewhere in the Southwest, Southern Methodist is favored to retain the SWC title in a usually wide-open league, but Utah is not expected to repeat as champion of the Western Athletic Conference.

Figures the Packers Will Win Saturday

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Will Green Bay catch up with Francis Tarkenton the second time around? Can Terry Nofsinger get St. Louis moving again? Will John Unitas snap out of his slump against the Rams? Let's take another shot at picking the winners in the Sunday games:

NFL
Green Bay 24, Minnesota 20—Tarkenton drove Vince Lombardi mad in their first meeting when the Vikings won 20-17 in Green Bay Nov. 6. Packers lead series 9-2 and are coming off win over Bears while Vikings bowed to Lions and Rams.

Scramblers like Tarkenton and George Mira usually give the Packers fits so Francis could do it again.

Baltimore 16, Los Angeles 7—Scared of this one. Unitas benched last week and his arm is tender. Rams humiliated Giants and beat up Vikings with super defense. Rams gained all the ground Oct. 30 but Colts won 17-3.

Washington 23, New York 9—Redskins get even for 13-10 loss in New York, Oct. 16, only Giants' win of year. Sonny Jurgensen due to pick defense, to bits with plenty of time to un-load.

Chicago 24, Atlanta 14—May not be easy. Falcons have been moving ball against everybody, gave Colts trouble before finally breaking into win column against Giants. Defense should win it for Bears.

Pittsburgh 13, St. Louis 9—A field goal battle between Mike Clark and Jim Bakken. Could be another upset win for Steelers who beat Cards 30-9 Nov. 13. Philadelphia has the bye.

AFL
Boston 27, Miami 14—Pais weak on pass defense but so are Dolphins. Boston has punch of Jim Nance and field goal kicking of Gino Cappelletti.

San Diego 24, Denver 10—Chargers snap out of tailspin after one-week bye but they can't take chances with Broncos who came close, 24-17, before bowing to San Diego earlier.

Kansas City 28, New York 21—A toughie. Chiefs moving in on clinch of Western title. Jets set for a Cotton Bowl date with Joe Namath must do super job against high-scoring Chiefs. Houston has the bye.

Oklahoma took some of the edge off fourth-ranked Nebraska's Sugar Bowl appointment with Alabama by snapping the Cornhuskers' nine game winning streak 10-9 on Mike Vachon's last-minute field goal.

In other games on Thanksgiving Day, Texas clinched a Bluebonnet Bowl berth with a 22-14 victory over Texas A&M, Virginia Tech walloped Virginia Military 70-12, Villanova downed George Washington 16-7 and Tulsa defeated Wichita 47-14.

Vachon, who had missed a 33-yard field goal try in the first half and a 23-yard attempt early in the fourth quarter, booted the winning three-pointer 21 yards on fourth down with just 48 seconds left to play.

Oklahoma Coach Jim Mackenzie said he had told Vachon not to be upset after missing the "Don't get your spirits down, we'll get you another chance," the coach told his sophomore.

Dick Davis had plunged two yards for the third quarter touchdown that gave Nebraska the lead but Bobby Stephenson blocked Larry Wacholtz' extra point attempt, giving Oklahoma the chance to come back.

Sophomores Chris Gilbert and Bill Bradley led Texas past Texas A&M. Gilbert ran for 137 yards and Bradley passed for one touchdown and ran for another. David Conway kicked two field goals for the Longhorns.

Texas will try to top Thursday's triumph when it faces Mississippi in the Bluebonnet Bowl Dec. 17 at Houston.

Army carries a 7-2 record into Saturday's game against Navy, which has a so-so 4-5 slate. Coach Bill Elias of the Middles expects no repetition of last year's 7-7 tie in which both he and Army Coach Paul Dietzel, who has since moved to South Carolina, called the plays from the bench.

"It resulted in a very dull game," said Elias, "and I vowed it wouldn't happen again," said Elias. Notre Dame and Southern California will both be using second-string quarterbacks. Coley O'Brian will call the signals for the Irish, replacing Terry Hanratty, who was hurt early in the Michigan State game. USC's Troy Winslow, who hurt his leg in last week's 14-10 loss to UCLA, will be replaced by Toby Page.

East Carolina plays at Louisville in the only game scheduled for tonight. Other games Saturday include Holy Cross at Boston College, Virginia at North Carolina, Tennessee at Vanderbilt, Southern Methodist at Texas as Christian, Rice at Baylor and Miami at Florida.

The code word ARCH for Analyze the lead; Review the bidding; Count your winners and losers and How can I make (defeat) the contract.

East and South both analyzed the deuce of clubs lead as fourth best. South has to bring home the diamond suit to make his contract because he can only count eight winners in the other suits. He also sees that he isn't going to have enough time if his opponents cash three clubs and two diamonds first.

His only hope is to get them to abandon the club suit. East produces the ace of clubs and South makes the brilliant, deceptive play of the king. If he just drops the ten East will know that South holds but one other club and will continue the suit. When South drops the king East is likely to decide that South's other club is the queen and that South has two club stoppers.

Let's see how East thinks after South does drop the king. He Analyzed a fourth best lead. His Review of the bidding shows that West can only hold two or three high card points and that they almost surely will be in spades. He Counts enough potential tricks to defeat the contract with a spade shift and leads a spade.

South puts on the king and leads a diamond. In spite of the fact that West played the three of spades on the first spade lead East is likely to try another spade and South makes his contract.

East could still have beaten the contract with a shift back to clubs but the chances are that once he started with spades he would keep going.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR. Printed by Offset THE DOCTOR'S MAILBAG Discomforts of Diabetes Sometimes Can Be Avoided

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—What is diabetic retinopathy? How is it detected and how can it be prevented?
A—This is a patchy destruction of the retina that is seen in some elderly diabetics. An eye doctor or diabetic specialist can see the lesions if he looks into the eye with a retinage. This operation cannot, however, be expected to restore already-damaged tissue.

Q—About a year ago I developed diabetes. I also have poor circulation. How can I prevent diabetic gangrene of the toes?

A—In addition to keeping your urine sugar-free at all times you should keep your feet clean and warm. Wear warm socks but use a hot water bottle or electric pad with great caution because even a mild burn may open the door to infection. Avoid sitting with your legs crossed because this hampers the circulation in your feet. Avoid sitting for long periods without walking around. When convenient sit with your feet elevated on a stool. Disinfect any minor cuts or bruises of your feet promptly and thoroughly.

Q—I have been told I have mild diabetes and am taking a low-calorie diet. I am losing weight, although I don't need to. How much sugar can I eat each day?

A—This would depend on your body weight and how active you are. Your doctor can work out a diet for that takes into account calories supplied not only sugars and starches but also by fats and proteins. If the amount of food you need to maintain your weight could sugar to appear in your urine you should take insulin diabetic pills rather than reduce your food intake.

Friday, November 25, 1966

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Forecasts on Election Night Prejudicial

"I'll have to go along with Barry Goldwater's group in its criticism of the television networks' 'forecasting' of last General Election Day while the polls were still open, as reported by the Associated Press in this morning's newspapers. The conservative Free Society Association, of which Mr. Goldwater is honorary chairman, in the words of the AP dispatch: 'accused the three major networks of distorting and perhaps influencing results through early projection of victory margins which turned out to be almost unanimously wrong.' The Free Society Association's formal charge was this:

"Before a single ballot was officially counted, all three networks were electing and 'declaring' winners. They were 'projecting' victory margins that turned out to be, almost unanimously, wrong—anywhere from two to three percentage points to an incredible 19." The Goldwater tally on forecasts by the electronic computer is pretty deadly. The score: NBC called the Georgia gubernatorial election for Lester Maddox "by a landslide"—and CBS and ABC went along. But the Georgia election hasn't been decided to this good day.

Maryland didn't elect George Mahoney governor—but CBS did. ABC's record was worst of all. It called eight key elections—with the wrong result in all eight. It's one thing to forecast how the people will vote, ahead of the actual election. That is standard practice in America—and the television networks have the same privilege that the newspapers have. But to attempt to stampede the people while they are still voting on actual Election Day smacks of conspiracy. It smells of conspiracy, I say, because a certain percentage of our people put "riding a winner" ahead of principle, and in a close race this small percentage could be influenced into changing their original opinion because a mere machine shouted that they were on the losing side.

The TV networks are under federal license. Their actual boss is a gentleman known down Texas-way as "Landslide Lyndon." Something of this smear seems to have rubbed off on the networks' computers Nov. 8—but the people didn't buy it.

Boy Killed in Home of Grandfather

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP)—Gene Rossini, 17, of Lake Village was shot to death Thursday evening in his grandfather's home at Lake Village, the Chicot County sheriff's office said.

Deputies said Rossini was shot once, or possibly twice, with a shotgun. A man was being held for questioning, they said.

Authorities refused to give more details on the shooting.

One Arkansas Traffic Death

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—One traffic fatality was reported Thursday in Arkansas, the first of the long Thanksgiving holiday that began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and will continue until midnight Sunday. Erbon Ray Ferguson, 56, of Magnolia was killed when his car ran off a curve on Arkansas 355 north of Mineral Springs.

Troopers said Ferguson was pinned when his car struck a dead tree and it snapped off at the bottom, falling on the vehicle.

China in New Political Turmoil

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent
Reports from inside Red China indicate the country is in for a new wave of political turmoil. There is evidence of rising resistance these days to "the great cultural proletarian revolution" which has served as a screen for a widespread purge and a tense struggle for power. The general political department of the Chinese army itself is the source of a report of attempted sabotage of a trainload of young Red Guards. They would have plunged to their deaths, according to the announcement, except for the action of a young soldier who, posthumously, is hailed as a hero and model for the army. The Red Guards—most of them under 18 and indoctrinated since the cradle—have been rampaging since mid-August in the cause of defending "Mao Tse-tung's thinking."

The hundreds of thousands of youngsters, often recklessly cruel, have struck at everything which even breathed of a suspicion of opposition to the current leaders of the Peking politburo. There has been a series of reports of clashes between the Red Guards and those who are resisting them. The attempted sabotage of the railroad train appears to underscore the seriousness of this resistance.

Such reports hint that at times the Red Guards get out of control of those who are using them and that the youths are spreading discontent and dissension through the country. At the same time, however, the Red Guard movement represents an important handle for those currently on top in the Peking Politburo. The movement obviously was created to enforce their will.

In creating the Red Guards, the politburo not only bypassed the 9-million strong Young Communist League and other organizations such as the All-China Students Federation, but it virtually dismantled the league. The league's members range in age up to 40 or more. It had been a political instrument of Peng Chen, the deposed mayor of Peking, who had represented a threat to the current leadership because of his command of the Peking garrison.

In effect, the Young Communist League and others who were thus bypassed now represent a huge gray area whence can come rising opposition to the unbridled violence of the Red Guard movement. Evidently, the bulk of its membership had been too mature to be assigned the task of enforcing a new "Cultural revolution."

All signs indicate the struggle and the violence in Red China are far from over.

Farm Death Was Accident

MIFFLINBURG, Pa. (AP)—A boy was strangled Thursday, police said, when drawstrings on his hooded jacket became entangled in the power train of a tractor.

Police said Kenneth H. Knechel, 12, was working on his father's farm when the accident occurred.

Miss Shirley Perkins, 17, of Ozan, Arkansas has been named Co-ed Correspondent for the 1966-67 school year, according to an announcement by Miss Margaret Hauser, editor of Co-ed Magazine.

Miss Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sammie L. Green, is in the 12th grade at Lincoln High School, Washington, Arkansas. Her appointment was made by Mrs. Gladys B. Williamson Colston, Home Economics teacher at Lincoln.

Selected for her qualities of home economics, Miss Perkins will serve as junior advisor to the editors of Co-ed, national magazine for teenage girls published by Scholastic Magazines, Inc. She will keep them informed of activities at Lincoln High School. More than 4,000 Co-ed Correspondents throughout the United States and Canada report regularly.

Presentation of a special F. H. A. Correspondent certificate will be made to Miss Perkins at a Christmas Program, December 20, at 7:30 p.m. by Dr. L. W. Williamson, Principal of Lincoln High School.

Green Beret Forces Win Battle

By PETER ARNETT
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Two Vietnamese irregular companies and their U.S. "Green Beret" Special Forces advisers came out on top tonight in heavy combat with a Communist force in the tangled jungles of War Zone C, an American command spokesman announced.

A U.S. army company linked up with the 240 or so irregulars, he said, and "the Viet Cong fled." There was no final report of casualties on either side, though initial advices were that allied losses were light. American artillery and air strikes had pounded the Communist troops in the action, in Tay Ninh Province nine miles northeast of Tay Ninh City and about 45 miles northwest of Saigon.

North Vietnamese troops wiped out a similar Vietnamese force in the same region a month ago.

Deaths in Traffic Mar Thanksgiving

The nation's death toll in traffic accidents edged toward the 200 mark today in the early part of the extended Thanksgiving weekend. But the toll appeared normal figure for a "Thanksgiving" holiday.

The count of highway fatalities, which started at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday, was 194, including 38 youths under the age of 18.

The tabulation ends at midnight Sunday, covering a period of 102 hours. During a recent nonholiday four-day period, an Associated Press survey, made for comparative purposes, showed a total of 546 traffic deaths.

However, the National Safety Council did not make an advance estimate of highway deaths for the long weekend. The council said it considers the Thanksgiving period as basically a home holiday which does not involve as much driving as other major holidays.

Traffic deaths hit a record high of 615 during the Thanksgiving weekend last year. Since the AP started tabulating highway deaths for the holiday eight years ago the lowest total was 442 in 1960.

Deaths in traffic accidents in the first nine months this year totaled 38,190, a 10 per cent increase over the corresponding period in 1965. The National Safety Council has said that last year's record toll of 49,000 deaths may be surpassed this year.

In the hour previous major holidays this year, traffic deaths set records marks: New Year 564, Memorial Day 542, Independence Day 576 and Labor Day 636.

They Only Got a Potted Plant

DETROIT (AP)—Two armed men held up a florist shop Tuesday and escaped—but with only a potted plant.

Marilyn Lashlee, co-owner of the shop, was bound by the gunmen. She told them there was no money to steal because the shop had just opened and previous receipts had been banked. Mrs. Lashlee suggested they take something else and leave looking like customers instead of holdup men.

The gunmen wrapped up a potted plant and left.

Negro Trucker Helps Rescue 4 Persons

By AL GOLDBERG
GRANVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A truck driver who helped rescue four travelers from their wrecked auto seconds before it was hit by a speeding train, says too many people pass the buck by "letting George do it."

James Martin, 32, said he "didn't do anything that spectacular" in the early Thanksgiving Day rescue on U.S. 30 near Plymouth, Ind.

"It was only my fair share as far as one human to another," said the father of five. He has been honored twice as Ohio driver of the month by the Ohio Trucking Association for earlier acts of helpfulness and is a part-time policeman in Granville.

"I just don't pass anybody up who needs help," Martin said in an interview.

"As I came up I saw the reflection of the license plate on the car," Martin said. "Then I saw a form on the ground next to the passenger side and a man standing on the other side."

"I stopped almost in the intersection and ran over to him. Inside were a young lady and a boy about two. They were covered with blood. I helped them out."

"My thoughts were only how badly they were hurt, and how could I be of assistance."

"Then, I heard the train coming. I had a light in my hand and waved it. But there wasn't enough time to flag down the train. Later, the engineer told me he never saw it."

"I hollered to the man: 'Let's get these people moved over to the other side of the road.' I don't think he was aware that a freight train was coming down the track."

As Martin and the driver of the car, Carlos Kitchen, 21, of Chicago, carried Mary Alice Evans of Williamson, W. Va., across the road, the train struck the car.

Police said the car apparently ran off the end of a dead-end road and landed on the tracks.

As the five reached the other side of the road, Martin said, "the car started cartwheeling—railroad cars started piling up and falling over." Thirty-four freight cars and two engines of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Chicago to Fort Wayne, Ind., train derailed.

Martin, who has been a truck driver for 4½ years, said one of his first thoughts as he ran from his truck to the wrecked car was the little boy.

The boy, son of Kitchen and his former wife, Jeanne Taylor, 20, of Elmwood, Ill., the other passenger in the car, was not seriously hurt.

Kitchen and Mrs. Taylor were listed in fair condition at a hospital. Mrs. Evans' condition was listed as poor.

Just Worried About Fiddle

NEW YORK (AP)—Jazz bassist Charles Mingus wasn't annoyed so much by being evicted from his apartment in New York City's East Village. It was that a city marshal and sanitation department employees carted off his fiddle for storage at a warehouse.

Mingus groaned: "I've had it most of my life, man. Man, how can you do it?"

The musician's landlord claims Mingus owes six-months back rent of about $200 a month, Mingus says he sublet the ground-floor apartment from a girl named Judy and that she has disappeared.

He can claim the bass by filing the necessary papers, officials said.

Pulaski Co. Judge - elect Feared Dead

DEWITT, Ark. (AP)—Pulaski County Judge-elect Tom Gulley, 65, was missing Thursday after his car plunged off the St. Charles ferry in Arkansas County into the White River. A diver located the station wagon Gulley was driving in about 14 feet of water about 25 yards downstream from the ferry and about a third of the way across the river from the west bank. The car was upside down in the river.

The divers did not find a body and search operations were called off until today because of hazardous conditions. Gulley, incumbent Pulaski County collector and a longtime political figure in the county, was driving to the nearby White River National Wildlife Refuge accompanied by John Eberle, 64, of Little Rock when the accident happened. They planned to hunt deer today and Saturday with a party that included Wylie Cavin, a Little Rock sportsman.

Eberle told officers he jumped from the car onto the ferry when it appeared the vehicle would run off the vessel.

State Trooper Ben Cavins quoted witnesses as saying the car appeared to accelerate when it began approaching the ferry down a hill from the west bank. The car traveled the length of the 60-foot barge and went through a restraining cable at the end.

Cavins said the ferry was returning after carrying six vehicles to the east bank. He said apparently no cars were in front of Gulley's.

It was not known what caused the accident. It was reported that four persons have died in mishaps on the barge since it began operations.

The ferry is on Arkansas 1 about 16 miles northeast of DeWitt. It is operated privately under contract of the state Highway Department.

Gulley, a former professional baseball player, began his political career in 1934, serving four terms as a Little Rock alderman. He was appointed chief deputy sheriff in Pulaski County in 1941 and was elected sheriff in 1946. He held the position until 1958, when he sought unsuccessfully to unseat incumbent County Judge Arch Campbell.

Gulley was elected collector in 1960 and was re-elected twice. He defeated two opponents in the Democratic primary this year for the county judge position and beat Republican Jimmie M. Brown in the Nov. 8 general election. Campbell did not seek re-election.

Gulley, a native of Raleigh, N.C., attended Mississippi College at Clinton. He spent 12 years in professional baseball—six years at Montreal, two with Cleveland, one each with the Chicago White Sox, and Shreveport and two at Little Rock.

He retired from baseball in 1928 and made Little Rock his home.
